

Jodi Spiegel is the Deputy Director of the Office of the Child Advocate for the Protection of Children. She is a 1992 graduate of Emory University Law School. She earned a B.S. in Psychology from the University of Florida and a Masters in Educational Psychology from Texas A&M University. She was in private practice for fourteen (14) years before serving as an Assistant District Attorney for seven (7) years prosecuting felony cases including those involving crimes against children. As a prosecutor, she worked closely with law enforcement, the Child Advocacy Center and DFCS. She led the SART Protocol Revision for her Circuit and was a member of the Multi-disciplinary task force.

As Deputy Director of OCA, she manages the Statewide Protocol for the Multidisciplinary Investigation and Prosecution of Child Abuse and Sexual Exploitation cases. Her work includes updating the Statewide Model Protocol and conducting state-wide Protocol trainings. She regularly presents for the Prosecuting Attorney's Council and the Georgia Public Safety Training Center on Domestic Violence and Children, Abusive Head Trauma, Co-sleeping Child Deaths and Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children. She is a member of the Statewide Human Trafficking Taskforce and the Sexual Assault Response Expert Committee.